Over the ten years to 2010-11, Queensland recorded an average annual growth in gross state product (GSP) of 4.1%. During this period, the Sunshine Coast was the fastest-growing region in Queensland, with real average annual growth in gross regional product (GRP) of 5.1%.

Other areas which experienced faster GRP growth than GSP included the Mackay (4.6%), Brisbane (4.7%) and Gold Coast (4.8%) regions. Darling Downs and Fitzroy experienced 3.7% and 3.5% average annual growth respectively during this period.

North West and South West experienced average annual growth significantly below that of real GSP, with 0.1% and 0.3% respectively.

Central West contracted during this period, with an average annual decline of 1.9% in GRP.

The industry composition of Fitzroy's economy based on current price estimates of gross value added (GVA) shows mining is the prominent industry in Fitzroy, accounting for 34.0% of nominal GVA in 2010–11, up 7.6 percentage points from 2000–01. Construction, at 17.0%, and manufacturing, at 7.7%, were the next largest contributors to Fitzroy's economy. The largest change in composition, other than mining, was observed in construction, up 11.0 percentage points from 2000–01. Agriculture, forestry and fishing recorded the largest fall in its share of nominal GVA, down 5.1 percentage points, followed by manufacturing, down 3.0 percentage points.

(a) GVA is equal to GRP less net taxes on products. GVA is used to analyse industry composition of regional production as there is no adequate method to allocate taxes less subsidies on products across industries. As a result, these percentages should not be used to distribute statistical division GRP in calculating industry-level estimates. For further information please review the source publication.

Agricultural Production

Agriculture, forestry and fishing accounted for 15.2% of all businesses registered in the Capricorn Coast and Rockhampton area in 2016-17. Over four-fifths (83.9%) of these businesses were non-employing and more than one-third (37.6%) had a turnover of less than $50,000 per annum.

(a) It is not currently possible to account for those businesses which operate out of several locations, other than at their main location. This is particularly relevant for larger businesses, which commonly establish outlets in numerous states and regions across Australia. The reason for this is that data pertaining to individual business locations are not currently available from the Australian Bureau of Statistics Business Register. Users should therefore be aware of this limitation when using counts of businesses included in this table.

In 2015-16, livestock slaughtering made up 81.2% of the Capricorn Coast and Rockhampton area's total value of agricultural production. Fruit crops were the second highest agricultural commodity (5.4%), followed by vegetables (3.4%).

(a) It is not currently possible to account for those businesses which operate out of several locations, other than at their main location. This is particularly relevant for larger businesses, which commonly establish outlets in numerous states and regions across Australia. The reason for this is that data pertaining to individual business locations are not currently available from the Australian Bureau of Statistics Business Register. Users should therefore be aware of this limitation when using counts of businesses included in this table.

(a) It is not currently possible to account for those businesses which operate out of several locations, other than at their main location. This is particularly relevant for larger businesses, which commonly establish outlets in numerous states and regions across Australia. The reason for this is that data pertaining to individual business locations are not currently available from the Australian Bureau of Statistics Business Register. Users should therefore be aware of this limitation when using counts of businesses included in this table.

Retail Prices

A survey of retail prices in Queensland in 2015 compared the prices of a range of household goods and services between Brisbane and 27 regional centres. Priced items were grouped into ten categories representing different household expenses. Together these constitute the all groups index. Regional centres have an index relative to Brisbane, which was given an index of 100. Rockhampton had an All Items index of 96.6, or 3.4% less expensive than Brisbane over all items.

The housing index included median weekly rents for dwellings, electricity and other household fuels. Housing accounts for 22.2% of the average Queensland household expenditure. Housing was 21.3% less expensive in Rockhampton and 21.4% and 34.5% less expensive in Emerald and Gladstone respectively than Brisbane.

The food and non-alcoholic beverages index included bread and cereal products, dairy and related products, fruit and vegetables, dining-out meals and takeaway, meat and seafood and non-alcoholic beverages. This category accounts for 16.3% of the average Queensland household expenditure. For food and non-alcoholic beverages, only Rockhampton in the Fitzroy SA4 recorded lower prices than Brisbane (18.1%). Gladstone was the dearest centre surveyed in the region, with prices for these goods 12.7% higher than Brisbane.

The transportation index included unleaded and diesel fuel, mechanic charges, taxi fares, vehicle registration, roadside assistance membership, CTP insurance and driver licences and sundries such as car batteries, motor oil, tyres and spark plugs. In the average Queensland household, transportation accounts for more than one tenth (11.4%) of expenditure. In Rockhampton, the transportation index was 2.4% higher than Brisbane while it was 0.6% and 1.2% lower in Gladstone and Emerald respectively.

The insurance and financial services index included household contents insurance, comprehensive motor vehicle insurance, financial services and deposit and loan facilities. Rockhampton was significantly higher than Brisbane and all other centres with an index of 138.0 or 38.0% above the Brisbane region.
