

TEL TALK: The Power of a Professional Network

We know that the idea of building a professional network could appear as a challenge to some. We also know that taking on and tackling obstacles at work on your own can be a challenge.

Join us for an interactive and engaging panel session at the SmartHub Rockhampton as we explore the ins and outs of building up your professional network followed by a networking hour and drink at the Boathouse so you can put your new skills to the test!
