Keppel to prosper under record Budget

A record Keppel electorate Budget will drive economic growth, education, health and community services, the Member for Keppel and Assistant Education Minister Brittany Lauga announced today.

Mrs Lauga said this is one of the best Budgets Central Queensland has received, and includes $1.1 billion in infrastructure, $622.8 million for health and $43.7 million for education to maintain, improve and upgrade schools in Central Queensland.

Over 60% of the total infrastructure budget is allocated to regional Queensland, outside of SEQ.

“There is $29 million for this year and over the forward estimates to continue working towards delivering power and water services to Great Keppel Island to support its redevelopment as a tourist destination.

“Plus there’s $5.8 million towards widening the Bruce Highway to Ramsay Creek, $5.7 million for new classrooms at Parkhurst State School and funding for Rockhampton’s $14.3 million drug and alcohol detox and rehabilitation centre.”

Mrs Lauga said the record budget was a massive injection of infrastructure and services for the Capricorn Coast and North Rockhampton regions, and includes “some amazing projects which will help drive the growth in Keppel for the year ahead and beyond”.

“These are issues I have worked hard for to secure funding for many of the things people in my electorate have been telling me they need.

The State Budget also includes an $885 million payroll tax relief package which will benefit an estimated 440 local businesses in Central Queensland.

Mrs Lauga said increased Budget funding of the successful Booyah Project for wayward youths would also work towards addressing crime, and its ongoing success was a real winner for the government and the electorate.

She said massive spending on education was another lynchpin in her pre-election promises, and in her role as the Assistant Minister for Education she has worked closely with every school in the Keppel electorate.

“Now because of that work there is $250,000 towards the Yeppoon State High School tuckshop, after I met several times with the school principal and P&C.

“This is in addition to $5.1 million over the forward estimates for a new administration building and five new classrooms at Yeppoon State High School.”

“The Budget also includes $150,000 for a new playground and shade at Yeppoon State School.

Mrs Lauga said 15 schools across the Keppel electorate would also share in $870,000 for minor works and maintenance, continuing to provide the best classroom and school facilities for teachers and students.

“These works also provide jobs for local tradespeople.
