

For Tourism Operators

The largest, most comprehensive website for people with disabilities to look for and book holiday and extended stays across Australia and New Zealand. Supporting operators with guest experience consulting, accreditation and inclusion training.

How we can help

Accessible Tourism Accreditation Program

Four-tier accreditation, collaboratively developed with input from end users - travellers with disabilities, reflecting real-world needs.

Accredited listings

Market your property to a website with over 600,000 website page views a year and over 38,000 followers and subscribers across Australia and New Zealand.

Guest Experience Consulting

Guiding you on your accessibility improvement journey, focusing on cost-effective, aesthetically pleasing, yet functional features that end users ask for.

Accessibility Inclusion Training

Self-paced online or in-person training designed for managers and employees confidently welcome guests with disabilities, ensuring a great guest experience.

Why become accredited

- ✓ 1 in 5 people live with disability, plus 17% of over-65s need accessibility at some point in their lives.
- ✓ 80% of our followers use our website to find trustworthy information and then contact you directly to book.
- ✓ Extended stays of 3 to 6 months.
- ✓ Repeat customers and more positive reviews.
- ✓ They stay longer. The average stay duration for our bookings for people with disabilities is 4.3 nights.
- ✓ The largest, most comprehensive website for people with disabilities seeking accommodation.
- ✓ They also book non-accessible rooms for carers and often in large groups.
- ✓ ATDW has adopted our Accreditation Program.

Helping you grow revenue

Verified Accreditation

Let the experts help you define how accessible you are. There is no single definition of “accessible.” Disability is incredibly diverse. This is exactly why our accreditation process is detailed and transparent: it helps travellers filter their search at a granular level with precision and accuracy, ensuring your property suits their needs. Better reviews & ensuring you’re in the top 80% search results in AI and Search. Place your accreditation on ATDW.

Accessible Guest Experience Consulting

Looking to roll out the red carpet and transform your property into a genuinely welcoming place for travellers of all abilities? You don’t just need to tick boxes – you need to deliver an experience. That’s where we can assist. Whether you’re building from scratch, renovating, or improving existing accessible rooms, we provide tailored consulting to ensure accessibility and the guest experience go hand in hand.

Inclusion Training

- Increase Bookings. Attract a rapidly growing, high-value traveller segment.
- Enhance Reputation. Be known as a truly welcoming and ethical business as a core part of your ESG values.
- Build an inclusive culture.
- Reduce Risk. Avoid accidental alienation and negative experiences.
- Give managers & team members the confidence to create inclusive guest experiences.
