

Australia's Food and Beverage Accelerator (FaBA)

A program backed by federal government, industry and universities to support innovation for smart, sustainable food and beverage manufacturing in Australia

Come and hear from FaBA representatives about a range of investment schemes, partnerships and learning offerings exist for the food and beverage industry

- R&D Investment opportunities – two tiers available
 - Kickstarter vouchers: up to $40,000, requires 12.5 – 20% cash contribution
 - Co-Investment Partnerships: between $100k - $5m, requires 50% cash contribution
- Technical learning programs - Self paced, online and in person options available (contact us to talk about delivery in your region or organisation)

In the content areas of:

- Food safety
- Plain English Allergen Labelling
- Leadership in the Food & Bev sector
- Product development, innovation

- Market analytics & broader business strategy learning offerings and services (contact us to talk about accessing these)

Learning offerings in the content areas of:

- Looking ahead at opportunities and disruptions
- Separating hype from the real drivers
- Approaches to reducing costs
- Actioning cost reduction activities
- Market trends reports
- Trends in action

Plus hear about more content coming soon...

Date: Tuesday 31st March, 4- 5:30pm

Location: Rocky Manufacturing Hub (Advanced Technology & Innovation Centre)

To RSVP: email Kris Biddle on kristopher.biddle@nrmrdd.qld.gov.au

For more information about FaBA, contact: Sophie Perisce, Industry Liaison Manager | sophie.perisce@uq.edu.au | 0421 869 003